

April 21 2012 Event - “Visits To The Past”

The San Antonio Living History Association 2012 Monthly Schedule of Events

The “Visits to the Past” Alamo Plaza Heritage Interpretation dates and the “Revolution in Béjar” (February, March, October & December) historical reenactments are listed below.

Visit the www.sanantoniolivinghistory.org “Events” page for event flyers and schedules.

April 21: “Visits To The Past” – Alamo Plaza, Saturday, 8:00AM - 4:00PM. Free.

The San Antonio Living History Association (SALHA) hosts free “Visits To The Past” programs in Alamo Plaza to engage visitors in conversations about 1800s San Antonio as they "step back" in time.

“Visits To The Past” programs are presented monthly in the middle of the city-owned landmark of the Alamo mission compound that is today’s Alamo Plaza. These “Visits” feature the sights, sounds, skills, clothing, and lifestyles of early San Antonio that interpret details of Alamo Plaza history.

Flint knapping for Muskets

SALHA historical demonstrations and exhibit tables are setup in Alamo Plaza, a great venue for visitors to relax, stay a while, and discover the most “hallowed ground” in Texas. All SALHA presentations are free. Donations are accepted to help cover the program expenses.

Living history presentations are subject to the weather. Diverse historical themes are offered monthly.

April 21st is the 176th anniversary of the Texian victory at the Battle of San Jacinto!
This monthly “Visit To The Past” has An Added Fiesta Program!

“This Hallowed Ground: Alamo Plaza” is a free historical walking tour that features several living history men, women and children in period clothing and persona, as a 1:00-2:30PM event. The walking tour is held during Fiesta, which itself began as a commemorative tribute to the heroes of the Alamo. Maps and a booklet will help you envision the Alamo fortress's original boundaries, from the Alamo’s main gateway entrance to the key strategic points where the cannon were placed. This an official Fiesta event sponsored by the Alamo Chapter, Sons of the Republic of Texas.
