

December 8 2012 Event - “Battle of Béjar” and “The Capitulation of General Cos”

The San Antonio Living History Association 2012 Monthly Schedule of Events

The “Visits to the Past” Alamo Plaza Heritage Interpretation dates and the “Revolution in Béjar” (February, March, October & December) historical reenactments are listed below.

Visit the www.sanantoniolivinghistory.org “Events” page for event flyers and schedules.

December 8: “Battle of Béjar” and “The Capitulation of General Cos”

Saturday, 10:00AM to 4:00PM in Maverick Plaza and at the Cos House in historic La Villita.

The San Antonio Living History Association reenacts the storming of San Antonio de Béjar (now City of San Antonio, Texas) by Texian and native Tejano volunteers that laid siege and drove out the Mexican garrison from the town of Béjar and the Alamo fortress in December 1835.

“Battle of Béjar”

Mexican Troops March into La Villita’s Maverick Plaza and Prepare for the Storming

The Battle of Béjar Begins

Texians Storm into Béjar

Texians Advance During the Battle of Béjar

Mexican Soldados Desperately Defend the Plaza