February 4: “Visits To The Past” – Alamo Plaza, Saturday, 8:30AM to 4:30PM. Free.

This month the San Antonio Living History Association (SALHA), in collaboration with the San Antonio Rodeo Cattle Drive Parade, offers free “Visits To The Past” programs in Alamo Plaza to engage visitors about 1800s San Antonio as they "step back" in time.

“Visits To The Past” programs are presented monthly in the middle of the city-owned national landmark of the Alamo mission compound that is today’s Alamo Plaza. These “Visits” feature the sights, sounds, skills, clothing, and lifestyles of early San Antonio that interpret details of Alamo Plaza history. SALHA historical demonstration and exhibit tables are setup in Alamo Plaza, a great venue for visitors to relax, stay a while, and discover the most “hallowed ground” in Texas.
